Discover a community crafted for comfort, convenience, and connection, where every corner invites you to embrace the essence of home.

Your dream home in Naas

Living in Naas, Co. Kildare offers a charming blend of urban convenience and rural tranquility. The town is well-equipped with local amenities, including a variety of shops, restaurants, cafes, and pubs that cater to diverse tastes. Residents enjoy access to top-notch educational institutions, such as Clongowes Wood and Newbridge College, recreational facilities like the Naas Racecourse and Punchestown, and beautiful green spaces such as the Grand Canal and local parks. The community vibe is vibrant, with numerous events and festivals held throughout the year, contributing to a rich local culture.

Naas is strategically located just about 40 kilometers southwest of Dublin, making it an ideal spot for those who work in the capital but prefer a quieter home environment. Excellent transport links, including the M7 motorway and frequent train and bus services, ensure easy and quick commutes to Dublin City. This proximity allows residents to enjoy the best of both worlds: the bustling city life of Dublin with its extensive cultural, shopping, and entertainment options, and the serene, community-oriented lifestyle of a smaller town.

An Ideal Location with links to wherever you need to go

Rathasker Lane is conveniently located on the outskirts of Naas town, offering easy access to shops and amenities. For commuters heading to Dublin, transportation options include train, bus, or the motorway. Rathasker Lane is situated close to Sallins & Naas train station and Naas bus stops, making it ideal for those travelling to the city.
